

(0:00) This is interview one for the design thinking course and the topic is loneliness among teenagers. (0:06) Here's question number one. Do you ever feel lonely sometimes and when do you usually feel that way? (0:13) Yes, I do feel lonely.

It's during class when I'm studying and people around me are talking (0:19) and they're enjoying while I work hard. I feel left out and when people enjoy without me. (0:25) And what situations or things in your life make you feel stressed or emotionally low? (0:32) Probably when I'm studying like doing my boards.

Well, I was very stressed emotionally low or when (0:37) I have fights with someone and I really like them. I don't want to talk with them. (0:43) Okay, and do you feel comfortable sharing your problems with someone? If so, who do you usually (0:49) talk to? I do feel comfortable but it's like in very rare situations like when I really can't (0:54) control it.

I need to, you know, bust it out. I mostly talk with my family or you know, I just (0:59) talk with my best friend. Okay, and does social media ever affect how you feel about yourself (1:05) or your life? It does, it does.

YouTube mostly affects, you know, I see people online, (1:10) you know, with their perfect body and you know, the clothes which they wear and you know, yeah. (1:14) Okay, and when you feel sad or overwhelmed, what do you usually do to feel better? I mostly sleep. (1:21) I like sleep, eat my favorite food and I just, you know, I relax.

That's all. Okay, and do you feel (1:27) supported by your friends or family when you're going through a difficult time? Yes, I do feel (1:32) supported. As I told, my family helps me and also my friends who help me.

Okay, and what do you think (1:37) helps you the most when you're feeling lonely or down? Social media too. Sometimes, you know, I listen (1:43) to music. I listen to happy songs which makes me happy.

Okay, and what advice would you give to (1:52) someone your age who is feeling lonely or depressed? Lonely or depressed? Talk it out. (1:59) Tell your feelings to someone and then probably they'll give you advice on how to overcome it (2:03) and you know, yeah, just try to overcome it. Okay, thank you.

(0:00) Okay, this is interview 3 for my DTL project. (0:04) Here is my first question. (0:05) Do you ever feel lonely sometimes and when do you usually feel that way? (0:10) Yes, I do feel lonely at times.

(0:12) It usually happens when I am surrounded by people but still feel disconnected (0:17) or when I don't have anyone to share my thoughts with. (0:20) Okay, and what situations or things in your life make you feel stressed or emotionally low? (0:26) Balancing studies, personal responsibilities and future plans can sometimes be stressful. (0:32) I also feel emotionally low when things don't go as expected despite putting in a lot of effort.

(0:39) Do you feel comfortable sharing your problems with someone and who do you usually talk to? (0:44) I am selective about who I share my problems with. (0:47) Usually I talk to a close friend or a family member who listens without judging me. (0:51) Okay, and does social media ever affect how you feel about yourself or your life? (0:57) Occasionally, yes.

(0:58) Seeing constant updates about other people's successes can make me feel like I am falling behind (1:03) even though I know everyone has their own journey. (1:06) And when you feel sad or overwhelmed, what do you usually do to feel better? (1:11) I usually take some time for myself, listen to music, watch videos that make me laugh (1:16) or go for a walk to clear my mind. (1:18) Do you feel supported by your friends or family when you are going through a difficult time? (1:23) Most of the time, yes.

(1:25) Knowing that there are people who care about me and are willing to listen (1:28) makes difficult situations easier to handle. (1:32) Okay, what do you think helps you the most when you are feeling lonely or down? (1:36) Keeping myself occupied with meaningful activities, talking to someone I trust (1:40) and reminding myself that difficult feelings don't last forever helps me the most. (1:45) Okay, and what advice would you give to someone your age who is feeling lonely or depressed? (1:51) I would tell them not to keep everything bottled up.

(1:53) Reaching out to someone, even if it's just one trusted person, can make a big difference. (1:57) It's okay to ask for help. (2:00) What situations usually make you feel lonely? (2:03) I tend to feel lonely when I spend too much time alone, when my close friends are busy (2:07) or when I am going through a problem that I feel others can't relate to.

(2:12) Thank you.

(0:00) Hi, this is for our DTL project and our topic is loneliness among teenagers. (0:06) My first question to you is do you ever feel lonely sometimes and if so when do you usually feel that (0:11) way? Sometimes when I'm alone for too long. Okay, and what situations or things in your (0:17) life make you feel stressed or emotionally low? Too much pressure, overthinking or when (0:23) things don't go as expected.

Do you feel comfortable sharing your problems with someone (0:28) and who do you usually talk to? Yes, usually with close friends or someone I trust. And (0:34) does social media ever affect how you feel about yourself or how about your life? Yes, (0:40) it can sometimes make me compare and feel low. When you feel sad or overwhelmed what do you (0:46) usually do to feel better? I listen to music, rest or talk to someone.

And do you feel supported by (0:53) friends or family when you're going through a difficult time? Yes, most of the time they do (0:58) support me. Okay, and what do you think helps you the most when you're feeling lonely or down? (1:04) Talking to someone and keeping myself busy helps. Okay, and finally I would like to ask you what (1:10) advice would you give to someone your age who is feeling lonely or depressed? I'd say don't (1:14) stay alone, talk to someone you trust.

Okay, thank you.
